

Brook's Pictures on Walls

Above: 'Spanish Dreams', by Sir Terry Frost RA , works itself amazingly well both during the day & evening.

Left: Another of Sir Terry's pieces, 'Blue Brad' is a stunning focal point in this room.

Above: 'Sources of Pop Art' by Sir Peter Blake was snatched up for a lovely London home before we even had a chance to put it in our exhibition!

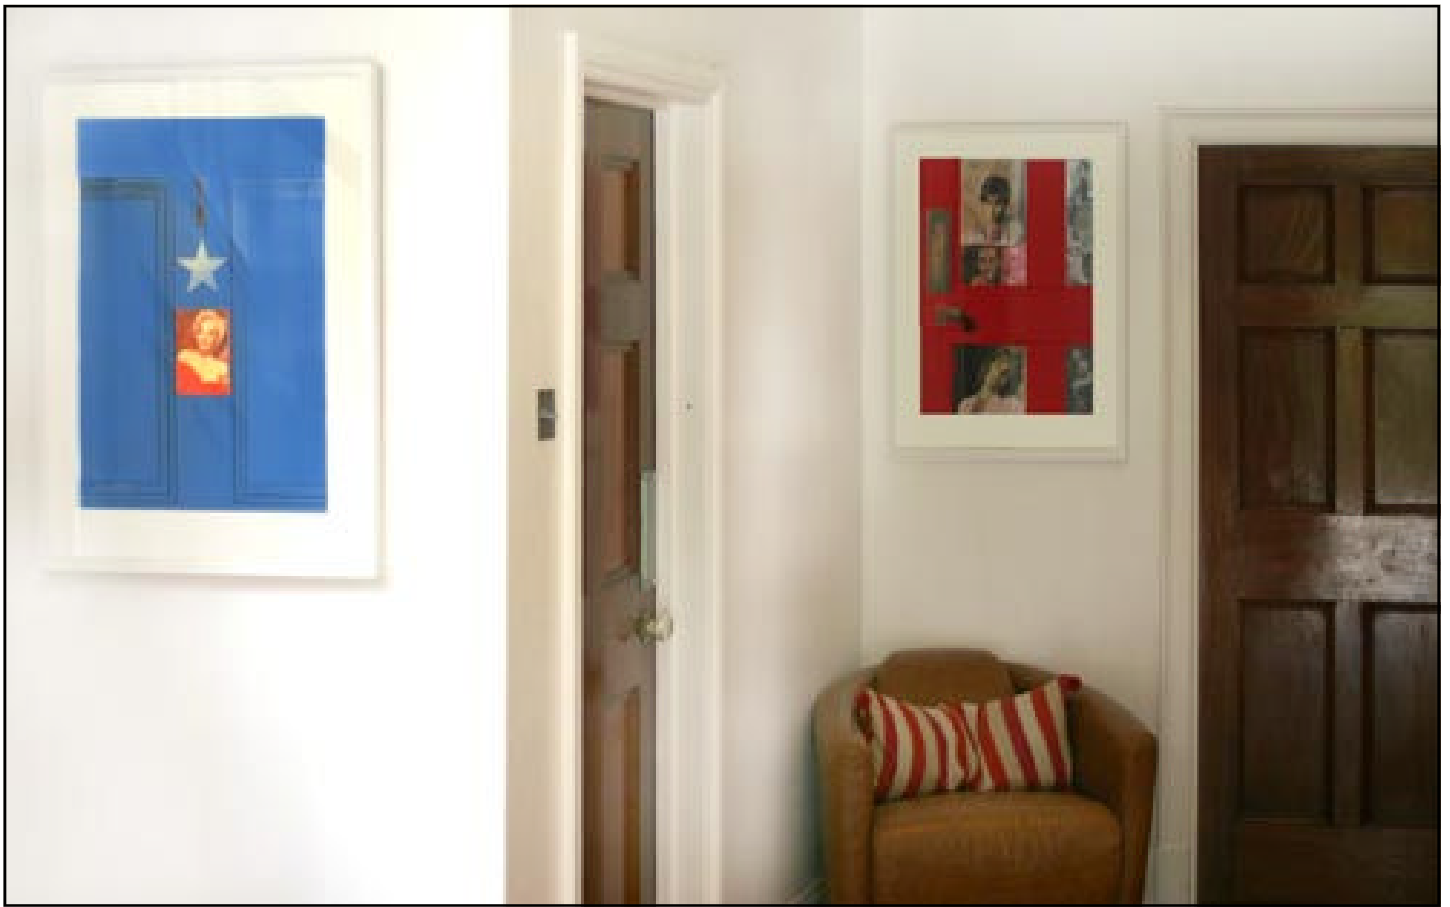

Left: The work of Nicolas Williams is much admired by the owners and house guests alike!

Simon Ripley's work is shown off to good effect in a multitude of settings & environments.

Three of Sir Peter Blake's stunning screenprints ensure there's a spectacular hallway as you enter this local house.
